Contract of Post-Partum Doula Care

We, the mother and partner, have discussed and reviewed our wishes for care to be provided by Thriving with Baby after the birth of our child, agree to the following:

- The care provided by the doula shall include, but is not limited to, infant care, sibling care, breastfeeding support, postpartum recovery care support, errands, light housekeeping, laundry, and meal preparation.
- In the event that you want overnight care, the doula is allowed to sleep when the baby/babies is (are) sleep and all duties have been completed.
- Postpartum services will be provided at $25 per hour with a minimum of 5 hours totaling $125. If you pay for 10+ hours of services at once, your rate will go down to $20 per hour.
- The first 5 hours of must be paid in advance with the signing of the contract. If you receive postpartum care multiple days a week, you will be billed once weekly. If you receive care one day a week you will be billed at the end of the shift.
- There is 5 hour minimum of postpartum care during the day and a 10 hour minimum for overnight care.
- Thriving with Baby regrets that sometimes the doula will not be able to provide postpartum services as scheduled, due to unforeseen circumstances (i.e. family emergency, illness, weather, or labor support). Thriving with Baby will make attempts to reschedule services as soon as possible.
